The Multidisciplinary Studies degree builds on the liberal arts and is designed to meet the needs of students who desire greater breadth in their curriculum than the typical degree allows. By combining coursework from over a dozen Arts and Sciences humanities and social sciences disciplines, students who pursue this degree may achieve unique academic and career goals.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Faculty spread across 13 departments with research in American Politics, Unmanned Aerial Systems, Acting and Medieval Literature.

Opportunity to choose two areas of concentration, one within the College of Arts and Sciences and a second from an OSU major of your choosing.

A liberal education cultivates key skills that are valuable for individual development and good citizenship.
