

Make a difference with a Certificate in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages

TEACH English to non-native speakers at home or abroad Gain hands-on EXPERIENCE before you graduate WORK with people from around the world

FIRST YEAR	SECOND YEAR	THIRD YEAR	FOURTH YEAR+	YOU WILL LEARN
Build a firm foundation through general education, including courses that count toward the certificate, such as ENGL 2243(H,I) or 2443(I).	Continue exploring how humans use language with upper-level coursework, e.g., ENGL 3063 , 4093(D,S) .	Deepen your study of how English works and how to teach with upper-level coursework, e.g., ENGL 4013 . Consider adding a linguistics minor.	Develop your abilities in teaching English and prepare for and complete an internship: ENGL 4043, ENGL 4180.	To effectively teach English: in overseas schools or universities. to international students in the U.S. to bilingual/bicultural English Language
Enjoy small, discussion-filled classes. Attend visiting speaker events around campus to learn about your interests.	Volunteer or work at the English Language and Intercultural Center.	Present research at the Southern Plains conference . Apply for a Fulbright to teach English abroad.	Do a teaching internship in the community.	Learners in public schools and adult education programs. To prepare materials for the global job market.
				WHAT IS NEXT
Join the English club and TESLing club to meet peers.	Join Sigma Tau Delta , the English honors society. Explore study and service abroad programs.	Apply for research opportunities, such as Wentz and AURCA . Come to Language Science seminars .	Consider a leadership position in English club , TESLing club , or Sigma Tau Delta .	Teach English to Speakers of other languages locally or abroad.
				Recent alumni
Talk with faculty and your academic advisor to learn about the degree and career opportunities.	Participate in International Composition Pedagogy Workshops. Learn more about TESOL jobs locally and abroad. Consider study or service abroad trips.	Explore teaching opportunities with the Family Resource Center and the SWJTU program .	Gain experience as a teacher. Visit career services to explore careers here and abroad and get help with your resume.	have taught in the US, Korea, and Japan among other locations.
	Build a firm foundation through general education, including courses that count toward the certificate, such as ENGL 2243(H,I) or 2443(I). Enjoy small, discussion-filled classes. Attend visiting speaker events around campus to learn about your interests. Join the English club and TESLing club to meet peers.	Build a firm foundation through general education, including courses that count toward the certificate, such as ENGL 2243(H,I) or 2443(I). Enjoy small, discussion-filled classes. Attend visiting speaker events around campus to learn about your interests. Join the English club and TESLing club to meet peers. Join Sigma Tau Delta, the English honors society. Explore study and service abroad programs. Talk with faculty and your academic advisor to learn about the degree and career opportunities. Participate in International Composition Pedagogy Workshops. Learn more about TESOL jobs locally and abroad. Consider study or service abroad	Build a firm foundation through general education, including courses that count toward the certificate, such as ENGL 2243(H,I) or 2443(I). Enjoy small, discussion-filled classes. Attend visiting speaker events around campus to learn about your interests. Volunteer or work at the English Language and Intercultural Center. Volunteer or work at the English Language and Intercultural Center. Volunteer or work at the English Language and Intercultural Center. Present research at the Southern Plains conference. Apply for a Fulbright to teach English abroad. Apply for research opportunities, such as Wentz and AURCA. Come to Language Science seminars. Talk with faculty and your academic advisor to learn about the degree and career opportunities. Participate in International Composition Pedagogy Workshops. Learn more about TESOL jobs locally and abroad. Consider study or service abroad	Build a firm foundation through general education, including courses that count toward the certificate, such as ENGL 2243(H,I) or 2443(I). Enjoy small, discussion-filled classes. Attend visiting speaker events around campus to learn about your interests. Join the English club and TESLing club to meet peers. Join the English club and Tesling club to meet peers. Deepen your study of how English works and how to teach with upper-level coursework, e.g., ENGL 3063, a linguistics minor. Deepen your study of how English works and how to teach with upper-level coursework, e.g., ENGL 4013. Consider adding a linguistics minor. Present research at the Southern Plains conference. Apply for a Fulbright to teach English abroad. Apply for research opportunities, such as Wentz and AURCA. Come to Language Science seminars. Apply for research opportunities with the English club and TESLing club, or Sigma Tau Delta. Talk with faculty and your academic advisor to learn about the degree and career opportunities. Participate in International Composition Pedagogy Workshops. Learn more about TESOL jobs locally and abroad. Consider study or service abroad. English club and TESLing club, or Sigma Tau Delta. Explore teaching opportunities with the Family Resource Center and the SWJTU program. Volunteer or work at the English works and how to teach with upper-level coursework, e.g., ENGL 4013. Consider adding a linguistics minor. Develop your abilities in teaching english and prepare for and complete an internship: ENGL 4043, ENGL 4180. Do a teaching Internship in the complete an in

: N

Learn more about building your custom path, visit: