Student Guidance on Wearing Facial Coverings

All OSU students, employees, and visitors must wear a facial covering (mask) upon entering any campus building and when near or encountering others. This includes during class and in laboratory settings. Please be aware that additional personal protective equipment (PPE), such as a face shield along with a mask, may be required in certain classroom and laboratory settings. Students who fail to wear their facial covering will be asked to leave the room and return after retrieving their facial covering.

Students who continuously fail to comply with this university expectation will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct Education and Administration for the Student Code of Conduct's Failure to Comply policy.

COVID-19 can be spread when people are asymptomatic, which means they do not know they are sick yet. Wearing facial coverings has been shown to reduce the spread of COVID-19 to others. It is important that OSU is a safe place to work and study, and taking this step creates a safe environment for all of us as advised by the CDC. More on facial covering guidelines. COURSE NUMBER AND TITLE: CS 5313 Formal Language Theory

FACULTY: K.M. George

Office : MSCS 220
Tel No: 405-744-5668
e-mail: kmg@cs.okstate.edu
Office Hours: T Th 11:00 AM – 12:00 PM by ZOOM meeting All contact outside the class time will be virtual

PREREQUISITE AND SUPPORT COURSES: CS 3613, CS 3353

COURSE OBJECTIVES: The objectives of this course are to study different theoretical computing models from language perspective and their relationships. At the conclusion of the course, a student should be able to:

- 1) Provide definitions of string, sentence, language, formal language, language hierarchy, procedure, algorithm, Finite State Machine (FSM), Deterministic Finite State Machine, Non-deterministic Finite State machine, Regular Expression, Equivalence classes of strings, Pushdown Automaton, Linear Bounded Automaton, Regular Grammar, Context-Free Grammar (CFG), Context Sensitive Grammar (CSG), Unrestricted Grammar, Regular Language (RL), Context-free Language (CFL), Context Sensitive Language (CSL), Chomsky hierarchy, and illustrative examples to each.

- 2) List the models that define regular languages. Given a language representation in one model, derive the representations in equivalent models. Determine if a given language is regular or not using known results related to regular languages.
- 3) Select generalizations of FSMs.
- 4) Define ambiguity of context free grammar and context-free language. Show ambiguity of CFGs.
- 5) List the models defining Context-free Languages (CFLs) and prove their equivalence.
- 6) List the decidability properties of languages and grammars.
- 7) Define the normal forms for Context-free Grammars. Convert a grammar to a specified normal form.
- 8) Give examples of languages in each class of the Chomsky hierarchy.

BRIEF COURSE OUTLINE:

As CS 3613 is prerequisite for this course, exposure to all the materials covered in this course will be assumed. Approximately the following topics will be covered (not necessarily in that order) at varying levels of depth:

Finite automata, regular expressions, linear grammars, context-free grammars, normal forms, closure properties, PDA, Chomsky hierarchy, context-sensitive grammars. Knowledge of finite automata and regular expressions will be assumed.

Homework and programming assignments will be posted on canvas. Approximately 8 homework assignments and two programming assignments are planned. Midterm will be posted at 9:30 AM on the exam date on canvas. Completed exam must be submitted back through canvas at the conclusion of the prescribed time period beginning from 10:30AM.

Following is an approximate target schedule:

STYLE/MODE OF TEACHING:

The class delivery mode will be blended hybrid. That means, every student will attend the class in person once a week. In-class lectures will be recorded and posted on canvas. Students not attending the class on a given day needs to watch the recordings. Questions can be asked via e-mail or canvas discussion facility.

Power point slides has been posted on canvas every related to the topics to be covered during the semester. It will be the responsibility of each student to study the posted notes and ask questions using discussion or e-mail. If oral explanation is required, a zoom meeting will be scheduled.

EXAMS:

Midterm exam (At the end of the 8 th week)	20 points
Final exam (scheduled time)	30 points

ASSIGNMENTS:

Home work problems	30 points
Programming assignments	20 points

GRADING PROCEDURE:

Grades will be assigned on the basis of a percentage of total points as follows:

RANGE of POINTS	LETTER GRADE
90% and above	A

at least 80% but below 90%	B
at least 70% but below 80%	C
at least 60% but below 70%	D
below 60%	F

For programming assignments, source code and required data files must be uploaded to the departmental computer 'csx' using handin. Any program that does not run on csx will be given '0' point credit. All students have accounts in csx. It is the responsibility of every student to make sure the programs compile and run correctly in csx.

IMPORTANT NOTE:

Make-up exams will not be given except in documented emergency situations. All assignments - homework assignments and programming assignments - are due at the specified time. Late homework solution will not be accepted except in cases of verifiable, documented emergency. Method of programming assignment submission is "handin". Everyone is required to use the departmental computers for programming assignments. While I will make every effort to answer e-mails in a timely manner, it cannot be guaranteed. While you are encouraged to ask questions, do not ask anyone to do home work problems or to debug programs for you. The objective of questions must be to understand problems, concepts, or proofs. Do not copy solutions from the internet, it will be considered cheating and will be given specified penalty.

POLICY ON ATTENDANCE:

This is a blended hybrid section. Attendance on the assigned date is strongly encouraged. Attendance will not affect the grade in any way.

TEXT MATERIALS:

Required text:

DROPPING A COURSE AND WITHDRAWING FROM THE UNIVERSITY, students often confuse these terms.

Dropping a Course refers to the dropping of one or more classes while remaining enrolled in at least one other OSU course for a given semester. Drop and refund deadlines can be found within the Academic Calendar. Summer courses and other short courses that vary from the standard 16-week semester follow proportionate drop and refund periods.

Withdrawing from the university means dropping all courses and you are no longer enrolled for the current semester. The withdrawal process is initiated with your academic advisor. Withdrawal deadlines can be found within the Academic Calendar. Withdrawal deadlines involving summer courses and other short courses that vary from the standard 16-week semester follow proportionate withdrawal periods.

Exceptions to the deadlines above may only be considered by petition due to documented extraordinary circumstances and committee approval. The Retroactive Drop/Withdraw and Refund of Tuition and Fees Petition is available on the Academic Affairs' website: <http://academicaffairs.okstate.edu/content/adding-dropping-and-withdrawing-courses>.

ALERTS AND RESCHEDULING

If the OSU campus officially closes due to inclement weather or other emergencies, alerts are provided to local news media and posted on the OSU website. Missed exams, classes, or assignments may be rescheduled at times outside the normal meeting schedule. If valid, documented circumstances prohibit students from attending the rescheduled classes, instructors should provide reasonable alternative means for makeup.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

101 Whitehurst/405-744-5627/<http://academicintegrity.okstate.edu>

OSU is committed to maintaining the highest standards of integrity and ethical conduct. This level of ethical behavior and integrity will be maintained in this course. Participating in a behavior that violates academic integrity (e.g., unauthorized collaboration, plagiarism, multiple submissions, cheating on examinations, fabricating information, helping another person cheat, unauthorized advance access to examinations, altering or destroying the work of others, and altering academic records) will result in an official academic sanction. Violations may subject you to disciplinary action including the following: receiving a failing grade on an assignment, examination or course, receiving a notation of a violation of academic integrity on your transcript, and being suspended from the University. Students have the right to appeal the charge.

COPYRIGHT & FAIR USE POLICY OF COURSE MATERIALS

Course materials may not be published, leased, sold to others, or used for any purpose other than appropriate OSU-related individual or group study without the written permission of the faculty member in charge of the course and other copyright holders. This paragraph grants you a limited license giving you access to materials for this course, including PowerPoint slides, audio/video recordings, written, or other materials, for appropriate OSU-related educational use only. Lectures should not be recorded without permission from the faculty member and must not be further disseminated or shared. Assignments, quizzes, and exams (individual questions or in its entirety) should not be uploaded to websites offering note-sharing, tutoring, or other academic help (free or by paid subscription).

CLASS PARTICIPATION

Class participation is a critical component of learning; therefore, you are expected to participate fully in all scheduled class meetings. While no penalty may be assessed for class absences during Fall 2020, you may not be permitted to make up certain class activities if absent. If you are ill, you should stay home. If you are required to participate in official university-sponsored activities or military training, you should receive an excused absence unless the written course attendance policy indicates otherwise. If you will be absent from class for sponsored activities, you must provide prior notification of the planned absence to the instructor. You may be required to submit assignments or take examinations before the planned absence.

COURSE SCHEDULE ADJUSTMENTS FOR FALL

Courses that usually meet for 50 minute class periods (e.g. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday classes) have been shortened by 5 minutes per class meeting to allow more travel time for students and faculty between classes. Instructors will be expected to provide additional assignments or instruction to make up the contact time for these courses to ensure classes meet the required semester credit hour standards.

INSTRUCTOR OFFICE HOURS

During Fall 2020 instructors and teaching assistants shall offer office hours online. Students are asked to respect the posted virtual office hours of all instructors and teachings assistants.

PRE-FINALS WEEK POLICY

Final examinations are scheduled at the end of each semester and are preceded by pre-finals week, which begins seven days prior to the first day of finals. During Fall 2020 pre-finals week, all normal class activities will continue in an online format; however, no assignment, test, or examination accounting for more than 5% of the course grade may be given; and no activity or field trip may be scheduled that conflicts with another class. This excludes makeup and laboratory examinations, out-of-class assignments (or projects) made prior to pre-finals week and independent study courses. No student or campus organization may hold meetings, banquets, receptions, or may sponsor or participate in any activity, program, or related function that requires student participation. For additional information, contact the Office of Academic Affairs, 405-744-5627, 101 Whitehurst.

FINAL EXAM OVERLOAD POLICY

Final exams for Fall 2020 will be held in an online format. In the event you have three or more final exams scheduled for a single day, you are entitled to arrange with the instructor of the highest numbered course (4 digit course number) or two highest, if you have four finals on one day, to re-schedule that examination(s) at a time and place of mutual convenience during final exam week. You should submit this request in writing, with a copy of your class schedule, at least two weeks prior to the beginning of final exam week. The instructor has one week prior to the beginning of final exam week to arrange a mutually convenient time and place for administration of the final exam. After one week, if an agreement cannot be reached, take the request to the department head.
