

The English Department and the Houston-Truax-Wentz Endowment present

Currents of Affect:

Revolutionary Activism & Reactionary Victimhood

A Free Public Lecture by Dr. David M. Higgins

Educated at the University of Southern California and Indiana University, David M. Higgins is Professor and Chair of the English Department at Inver Hills College in Minnesota's Twin Cities, as well as Senior Editor at the Los Angeles Review of Books. His book Reverse Colonization: Science Fiction, Imperial Fantasy, and Alt-Victimhood (2021) won the Science Fiction Research Association's 2022 Book Award, and his essay "Towards a Cosmopolitan Science Fiction" (2011) won the SFRA's 2012 Innovative Research Award.

Tuesday, March 7 @ 7:30pm

Peggy V. Helmerich Browsing Room, Edmon Low Library