

DEPARTMENT OF GEOGRAPHY

College of Arts and Sciences

INSIDE:

February
Happenings.....1

Departmental News...2

Geography Newsletter

February 2020

February Happenings

It's leap year – an extra day of February to enjoy! Let's spend it wisely...

The AAG meetings in Denver are fast approaching...book your hotel rooms and make your travel arrangements soon.

Monday, February 10 – 12:00 PM (Noon) – deadline for applications to departmental scholarships. Visit the Geography web page for more details, in particular the News.

Friday, February 14 – 3:30 PM – CLB 121. Colloquium presentation by Dr. Yaaminey Mubayi titled: "Water and Historic Settlements in India: The case of Ellora-Khuldabad-Daulatabad." The event is open to the public.

Also on February 14, we will say farewell to Amanda (Zimmerman) Smith. Amanda has not been with us long but she has been an integral part of our outstanding office staff. We wish her good luck as she moves to California.

News from Around the Department

PhD student Jesse Andrews recently published a peer reviewed article titled 'Effects of the School Calendar on a Farmers' Market's Attendance" in the Journal of Hunger and Environmental Nutrition.

DOI: 10.1080/19320248.2020.1721391

On December 10, 2019, the Geography Field Techniques course (GEOG 4313) held its annual student poster potluck lunch, featuring the research efforts of our majors in this class. Below left – Audrey Ward and Stephanie Grace. Below right – Addison Van Zandbergen and Katy Hites.

Fresh off his visit last fall and recognition as a CAS Distinguished Alumnus, A-frames around campus have been spotted featuring News 9 storm chaser Val Castor.

