

OSU's Department of English & English Grad Student Association presents:

Arts and Humanities Graduate Colloquium

On the Brink:

Borders, Transitions, and the Body

We invite presentations (individual papers, craft panels, round table discussions, and workshops) on physical and imagined borders and boundaries between cultures and identities, in space both physical and virtual.

This hybrid event is open to any and all graduate students at Oklahoma State University.

Submissions due: December 12th, 2021

Event dates: February 25-26, 2022

Further submission
details available here:

