PREPARATORY ACADEMY

Tyler Davis (Applied Cello Faculty)

Tyler grew up in Tulsa Oklahoma, and began his college studies at Tulsa Community College, where he had the honor of performing the Haydn Cello Concerto with the college orchestra. During his time there he also won the Hyeckha Collegiate Scholarship Competition. Currently, Tyler teaches at OSU's GSM Prep Academy while pursuing a degree in Music Industry with a focus on sound recording and production. His passion for music extends from performance to teaching and now into the technical aspects of sound. With a blend of performance experience, teaching expertise, and a dedication to mastering music technology, Tyler is poised to make a meaningful impact in the dynamic realm of the music industry.
