“

My time as an Art major has taught me to be more confident in myself, in my abilities, and persevere in the face of obstacles.

- Jordan Richards, Graphic Design Major

The influence of fine arts, and applied arts and art history has never been greater than it is today, and the Department of Art, Graphic Design and Art History at Oklahoma State University is dedicated to excellence in all forms of art creation, research and education. As an art major, you will learn from highly active faculty who exhibit nationally and internationally and whose scholarly work is consistently cited for its excellence. They are also dedicated teachers, always seeking to improve educational and professional opportunities for their students. You will have unique opportunities to experience art through exhibits, travel, internships and research.
