The Wolves

by Sarah DeLappe
CHARACTERS

813 – Midfield. Stance; older pot dealer brother, into her weakness. Sixteen.
814 – Midfield. #7’s insecure sidekick. Just matched to contacts. Sixteen.

SOCCER MOM

SETTING
An indoor soccer field somewhere in suburban America. The field is AstroTurf. We only see the field; no goals, no bleachers. Fans, fluorescent. There should be the sense that the field goes on forever.
Winter: Saturdays.

SPEED
The play should take ninety minutes.

AUTHOR’S NOTES
Each scene is a warm-up for a game. The warm-up is a series of exactly-timed stretches: lunges, quad, hamstring, butterfly, etc. The team executes it wearily, in perfect union and with military precision.

Over the course of the play, 846 learns the warm-up.

In Week Three, if 846 can’t juggle a soccer ball, she should perform footwork or tricks to the rhythm of the yogurt chant. It ought to be an impressive show of ball-handling skill.

In Time-Out, 800 must exhaust herself with great feats of athleticism and strength that build to the final scream. What that sequence looks like is open to interpretation. It could be kicking soccer balls offstage. In our production, the actor devised an escalating series of exercises, including high knees, bent kicks, burpees, jumping jacks, etc.

#10.
I don't really know
I haven't thought about it.

#0

Do you feel like you have to...?

#00

No.

#0

I guess I uh interesting.

I think I don't feel as stressed?

#2

About what?

#00

About like like people scoring on me.

Missing the ball.

Seeing it pass through my fingers.

Or like penalty kicks.

Or like corner kicks.

Or a shoot-out even.

Or just like losing.

Losing the game.

It's not.

I visualize a lot.

I'm pretty much always visualizing during warmups.

At night when I can't sleep.

When I noodle around on the sax.

But it doesn't seem so... scary.

Right now.

I guess.

#11

Cool.

#00

Or maybe I think we're gonna forfeit.

So it just hasn't hit me yet.

Um so how are you guys?

#11

Ok.

#8

Ok.

#80

Yeah.
I haven’t thought about it

#8.
do you feel like you have to...?

#8.
no

#8.

#9.
it’s really weird being here

#9.

#9.
she shouldn’t have worn headphones

#9.
yeah but

#9.
she shouldn’t have

#9.
it’s so dangerous

#9.
she knew that

#9.
that guy should have scraped his windshield

#9.
or like defrosted it

#11.
right I know but if she had heard him?

#12.
guys

#46.
hey is that the Hornet?

#11.
they all look off

#12.
again?

#12.
I guess so

#12.

#40.

#40.
I would really really love to win

#40.

#40.
anyone wanna pass?

#2.

#2.

#2.
