

United Chapters of Alpha Kappa Delta

International Sociology Honor Society

Anthropon Katamanthanein Diakonesein
"To investigate humanity for the purpose of service."

You are invited to join Alpha Kappa Delta, the International Sociology Honors Society. Membership is limited to students who have maintained a record of high academic achievement, and sociology faculty members. The criteria are described more fully below. Membership in Alpha Kappa Delta is an earned honor. Once you join, you become a lifetime member. Your membership may be used on your resume, applications for graduate school, and job applications.

Advantages of Membership

- ⇒ free one-year subscription to Sociological Inquiry
- ⇒ eligible to compete in AKD sponsored paper contests with cash prizes and travel money to participate in the American Sociological Association annual meeting
- ⇒ eligibility for AKD funding to present at regional sociological meetings
- ⇒ members may purchase honor cords for graduate ceremonies, AKD pins, and other memorabilia
- ⇒ members who become Civil Service employees entering at the GS-5 level meet one of the requirements for entrance at the GS-7 level (an increase in pay-grade) if AKD membership is listed on the application

The Alpha Kappa Delta International Honors Society was founded in 1920 by sociologist Dr. E. S. Bogardus for the purposes of stimulating scholarship and promoting the scientific study of society. Today there are more than 670 chapters and more than 130,000 lifetime members. We hope you will consider joining our membership!

The Department of Sociology is located on the 4th Floor of Social Sciences & Humanities.

How do I join?

Undergraduate and graduate students who are interested in joining AKD must submit the following materials:

1. Membership Application Form (see next page)
2. An unofficial copy of your transcript (hard copy or via e-mail)
3. Pay a one-time membership fee of $50.00 by cash, check, or money order, payable to Jonathan Coley. Dr. Coley will then write a complete check to AKD covering the cost of all new members.

Applications should be mailed to Dr. Jonathan Coley:
